

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENTIAL ENVOY FOR INTERFAITH AND ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

Office of the President, Jubilee House
Accra, 10th August 2025

To: All Ecumenical Heads
Dear Esteemed Leaders in Christ,

STRENGTHENING SPIRITUAL PARTNERSHIP FOR NATIONAL DIRECTION AND HEALING

Greetings of peace and grace from the Office of the Presidential Envoy for Interfaith and Ecumenical Relations. On behalf of the President of the Republic of Ghana, His Excellency John Dramani Mahama, and the Office of the Presidential Envoy, I extend heartfelt appreciation to you and your various denominations for your unwavering spiritual support, intercessory prayers, and sustained leadership in promoting peace, moral integrity, and national unity. Your role in Ghana's spiritual and civic life remains indispensable.

As part of strengthening national coordination on spiritual matters, especially in these times of uncertainty and complexity, we kindly encourage you to inform all Prophets, Men and Women of God under your oversight that any prophecy or spiritual insight of a national nature, especially those with implications for high-profile political leaders, governance, national security, or public stability should be formally relayed to the Office of the Presidential Envoy for urgent review and appropriate escalation. This is in the spirit of responsibility, discernment, and stewardship over the nation's destiny.

Furthermore, in light of the tragic accident that occurred recently, which claimed lives and involved government officials, military personnel, and NDC party executives, we humbly request your intense prayers for:

- The President of the Republic, His Excellency John Dramani Mahama
- The Government and all State institutions
- The bereaved families and the entire nation of Ghana

May the Lord comfort the afflicted, guide our leaders, and continue to preserve our beloved country. We look forward to continued partnership and shared spiritual responsibility as we work together for the peace and prosperity of Ghana.

Yours sincerely,

Elvis Afriyie Ankrah

Presidential Envoy for Interfaith and Ecumenical Relations
